Page 2, Q1. How would you rate your overall satisfaction with the Woodstock 5K?

1	I was very impressed both years in running, however, last year and this year my only complaint was the same---that at the end of the race, there is no "walk it off" room once you cross the finish line...you are having to immediatly work around people and stop any running/walking. I would love to see the road opened up further past the finish line so as to allow time to walk it off once the race is over. Thanks! I enjoyed the race!	Aug 28, 2011 6:46 PM
2	Bathrooms in the school - need to be cleaned beforehand	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
3	the corral sys did not work and should probably be abolished other than asking walker to move to the rear	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
4	Liked the move to inside the high school for pasta dinner and post-race refreshments.	Aug 24, 2011 7:40 AM
5	The time corrals were an improvement, but better communication that they exist would be good. seemed some of the people did not know about them.	Aug 23, 2011 9:41 AM
6	Each year it gets better and better, The Anniston Runners Club does a fantastic job,,not only on this 5k but so many others. Hats off to Brooke Nelson!!!	Aug 23, 2011 7:41 AM
7	You might want to mention 4th and 5th place winners.	Aug 17, 2011 10:09 AM
8	more healthy food options like whole grain pastas and veggie pizza	Aug 13, 2011 9:33 PM
9	Add height to your corral signs you could not see them well from the street...signs were too low.	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
10	Loved the post race fun and the announcer!	Aug 12, 2011 1:48 PM
11	I had a lot of fun, but there were a lot of hills on the course.	Aug 11, 2011 4:17 PM
12	I've run quite a few 5Ks and this may be the best ever. Great event! Great volunteers and enthusiasm. May want to shorten the kick-off at the start line and make sure the women's bathroom has plenty of t.p. Other than those minor concerns, AMAZING! I've already told all my running friends!	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
13	Let non-racers eat the fruit	Aug 11, 2011 12:11 PM
14	I was volunteering at the finish line with the drinks. We had bottle water and water for cups and gatorade. Since there was bottle water no one wanted the water in the cups, they all wanted gatorade and we ran out of gatorade.	Aug 11, 2011 9:05 AM
15	It would be nice to start the race earlier, before the heat got worse.	Aug 10, 2011 9:12 PM

Page 2, Q1. How would you rate your overall satisfaction with the Woodstock 5K?

16	Some complaints about pasta pigout. They ran out of plates, salad, alfredo, and vegetables. They should have been able to plan better.	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM
17	liked it better with festivities outside. more area to mingle.	Aug 10, 2011 8:31 PM
18	Really glad you are trying to recycle. The Jaxpan band was awesome post-race music!	Aug 10, 2011 8:16 PM
19	I like the way the vendor, food and kidzone where close to the race in 2010 and you did not have to walk up stairs where it was overcrowded. Had my wife and newborn in a stroller they could not come up the stairs with me.	Aug 10, 2011 8:15 PM
20	Did this for fun- not a runner. No water at the first mile mark- got there in less than 12 minutes, so alot of people did without water- kind of discouraging.	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM

Page 2, Q2. Did you feel the entry fee was a good value for what you received (i.e. Technical shirt, goody bag, awards, chance on door prizes, post-race party, etc...)?

1	tshirts were awesome:)	Aug 30, 2011 4:10 PM
2	Love, love, love the shirts!	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
3	The shirt was great, but there were no other "freebies" -- LOVED the Clif Bar last year; also last year had more coupons	Aug 24, 2011 7:29 PM
4	The graphics on the shirt are already coming off,	Aug 22, 2011 11:08 PM
5	Plus, it is for charity!	Aug 12, 2011 3:44 PM
6	I feel that if you must pre register that you should get the shirt size that you ask for, we did not get our shirt size and I think that if you put them in the bag by race number that problem would be taken care of, if someone wants to change then wait until all requested shirts have been claimed.	Aug 12, 2011 11:10 AM
7	Goody bag not that great. Shirt great!!!! Food choices good!!!	Aug 12, 2011 10:14 AM
8	Love the shirt. Too cute!	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
9	Great shirts!!! Thanks	Aug 11, 2011 2:43 PM
10	I think it costs too much, but a lot of races cost too much these days.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
11	I've run in the last 5 Woodstock 5 K's and this is the best yet(but just a little hot)	Aug 11, 2011 10:55 AM
12	Love the shirt and was glad to donate to UCP/Special Olympics	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
13	BEST RACE IVE RAN IN!!!!!!!!!!	Aug 11, 2011 7:54 AM
14	got shorted one flashlight	Aug 10, 2011 10:02 PM
15	Best race shirts!	Aug 10, 2011 9:12 PM

Page 2, Q2. Did you feel the entry fee was a good value for what you received (i.e. Technical shirt, goody bag, awards, chance on door prizes, post-race party, etc...)?

16	Love the shirt!! Great job, Candace!	Aug 10, 2011 8:48 PM
17	I always enjoy the event, but I like it better under the big tent close to the race.	Aug 10, 2011 8:15 PM

Page 2, Q3. How would you rate the following areas regarding pre-race communications?

1	Did not race; just volunteered	Aug 30, 2011 5:56 PM
2	Dislike paying fees, but understand its part of online registration.	Aug 30, 2011 2:27 PM
3	Excellent organization!	Aug 30, 2011 11:01 AM
4	I don't like the processing fees on Active. Some of the other sites have lower processing fees such as raceit.com	Aug 30, 2011 9:28 AM
5	Wonder if we couldn't promote more through runner's clubs in the southeast	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
6	I had a little bit of trouble navigating at active.com and the 5k website to register and find out the information I needed to know about the race.	Aug 24, 2011 2:09 PM
7	Registration at Active.com costs more and is more difficult and time consuming than printing, completing and mailing entry form.	Aug 23, 2011 1:56 PM
8	Tried to buy an anniston Runners club membership with my registration online (Ilike it asked) but would not let me	Aug 23, 2011 1:18 PM
9	charges too high to register via Active.com	Aug 23, 2011 7:36 AM
10	I see the benefit to RD's but detest the additional Active fee.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
11	I feel like there was less communication before the race this year than previously. I also did not see as much info in advertising or local races. I suggest moving to imATHLETE.com over Active.com. Lots of other events have made the switch...Team-Magic, Rocketman, etc... I am not sure if the fees are much better than Active, but people sure do seem to complain less about it	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
12	Didn't receive much info from the race director like I did in the past.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
13	did not use active.com	Aug 12, 2011 5:39 AM
14	Active.com fees are ridiculous. There has to be another way.	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
15	Website needs many improvements. But I do websites, so I'm critical. One thing missing is a "Registered Runners List" I hate Active.com	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
16	You couldn't sign up on a team when you registered online. Some of the information was missing or wrong on the site. (i.e. no kids corral on the form and also the team information was wrong).	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
17	Active.com can roast in Hell.	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM

Page 2, Q3. How would you rate the following areas regarding pre-race communications?

18	had problems using my debit card on active.com I had to use Credit Card	Aug 10, 2011 8:56 PM
19	The information about teams was confusing and hard to find.	Aug 10, 2011 8:16 PM

Page 2, Q4. We offered Packet Pickup at Wig's Wheels in Anniston on Friday from 8AM-2PM. How did it work?

1	I did not know about this option. It sounds like a good thing.	Aug 30, 2011 9:14 PM
2	Couldn't make it but will try if it is done again next year.	Aug 30, 2011 2:27 PM
3	Someone picked up my packet for me	Aug 30, 2011 9:58 AM
4	Too far to travel just to come back the next morning, so we did early registration day of.	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
5	probably a good idea as it would cut down on the # of people coming in Friday evening at the pig out but i worked the afternoon shift at the high school	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
6	Did not know about this. Probably wouldn't have driven over to pick up-45 miles	Aug 24, 2011 9:22 AM
7	Process needs a little more organization. Be ready to start at 8:00, ample packets at beginning to last day, a bit more space. Some of data entry of pre-registered was incorrect.	Aug 23, 2011 1:56 PM
8	I picked up my packets around 9:30-10 am and the complete packet was not there- got shirts and number, had to go back for the other "fun/info" stuff	Aug 23, 2011 8:39 AM
9	THis was awesome!!! Now my husband would like a bike...LOL!!!!!!!	Aug 23, 2011 7:41 AM
10	MUCH better than years past	Aug 22, 2011 11:55 AM
11	Was able to get some bike stuff while I was there.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
12	Did not know this was offered.	Aug 14, 2011 3:43 PM
13	much more organized than last year	Aug 11, 2011 6:01 PM
14	Need to supply the help with more than one roster so they can keep the line from backing up. At one point, there was a pretty long line in his shop. I think it ran smoothly though.	Aug 11, 2011 2:43 PM
15	The only problem I had is someone gave me an XXL in stead of XL. I swapped it out at the race, not a big deal.	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
16	Very convenient!	Aug 11, 2011 10:20 AM
17	During lunch it did get a little busy. It might be good to have separate lines for those just picking up and those who actually need to pay for something.	Aug 11, 2011 8:12 AM
18	I collected my packet at Anniston High School.	Aug 11, 2011 8:04 AM
19	Pati Tiller was awesome!	Aug 11, 2011 7:35 AM

Page 2, Q4. We offered Packet Pickup at Wig's Wheels in Anniston on Friday from 8AM-2PM. How did it work?

20	Really liked this option. Seemed to go smoothly.	Aug 11, 2011 7:28 AM
21	A way to fit it into the working schedule of the day	Aug 11, 2011 5:42 AM
22	Could there be a different location as another option?	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
23	Was going to use but didn't get off in time.	Aug 10, 2011 8:56 PM
24	Perfect for me	Aug 10, 2011 8:40 PM
25	Perfect!	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM
26	i was at work so i couldnt go there to pick up so it didnt really apply to me :)	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM

1	Did not attend but I heard good things	Aug 30, 2011 9:58 AM
2	I liked it being indoors but had a little bit of difficulty locating the area for packet pick-up.	Aug 30, 2011 9:28 AM
3	It would be way easier if yall have the bib numbers in the packets as well as the shirts.. too a long time the morning of the race to get your packet. Its more time involved before the race, but will help in moving the line along in the morning.	Aug 26, 2011 10:24 AM
4	It was disorganized and not well laid out.	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM
5	it might improve the flow if packets were pulled by alphabet , with separate lines for a thru f etc rather than everyone getting in the same line	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
6	the school was great. the students fabulous.	Aug 23, 2011 9:41 AM
7	I like this packet pickup at Anniston High much better than last years location.	Aug 22, 2011 11:18 PM
8	There weren't any signs or volunteers telling me where to go at the high school. Once inside, it was pretty congested.	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
9	Didn't use AHS. Picked up at location on Noble st.	Aug 22, 2011 9:35 AM
10	Not efficiently organized. Need to divide the tables by numbers for runners to pick up stuff. Need people outside the school telling everyone how to get there. Need people who can direct everyone inside the school, too.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
11	the dinner was delicious	Aug 16, 2011 6:18 PM
12	Seemed to be very crowded and congested	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
13	You need more people at the day of packet pick up having only one person with a master list created a log jam plus the people seemed inexperienced.	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
14	I arrived about 3:10 and seemed slightly disorganized at that point. Once it got	Aug 12, 2011 6:49 PM

	going I was in and out very quickly.
15	shirts should be in bags and correct size should be available	Aug 12, 2011 11:10 AM
16	location of pickup at AHS was not clearly marked. it needs to moved out of the doorway to allow more room to form lines. need more than one line to identify last name to located your registration information.	Aug 12, 2011 5:39 AM
17	I was out of town and could not attend the packet pickup pasta pigout. My wife picked up my packet at Wig's Wheels on Friday. Next year I plan to attend the pasta pigout.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
18	Was slowed down because they had run out of women's large & X-large shirts.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
19	I picked up packets @ Wig Wheels	Aug 11, 2011 10:20 AM
20	Needs big signs.. "REGISTRATION" and "PRE-REGISTERED". Everybody does that.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
21	The Registration and Packet Pickup need to be in seperate areas! Overall though....it was good. Seemed the pasta pigout was a little out of the beat and path though. But overall lots more room.	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
22	Packet pickup had some wait times (lines) for the pickup. Generally moved pretty well, but there were times when shirts had to be located and there possibly could have been a few more folks putting chips and race numbers with the goody bags.	Aug 11, 2011 8:20 AM
23	I sent Dennis suggestions-Have Registration totally separate from Packet Pickup & Have Packet Pickup further back facing runners as they come in w/all packets PRESTUFFED Completely and in ABS Order or Numerical Order(whichever)	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
24	Some more signage out front to indicate where to go. If someone was not familiar with Anniston High School, it was not clearly marked as to where to go.	Aug 11, 2011 6:41 AM
25	Several people were unsure where the pasta meal was located.	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM
26	Packet Pick up was very smooth and super quick! I was in and out in just a few minutes, and was even able to pick up my friend's packet (who was running late) with no questions asked. I loved having all of the opportunities to do packet pickup (early @ Wig's Wheels, Friday night, etc)	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
27	We waited until Saturday morning to pick up our packets. We didn't know that the location had changed to inside the high school, so some signs would be nice.	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
28	To make it smoother the packets should have been pre-made and areas to pick up packets could have been separated by first letter of last name.	Aug 10, 2011 8:44 PM
29	Organization seemed weak. Signage would have been nice to know where to go next.	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM
30	Would reccomend packets with bibs and t-shirts be pre assembled. T-shirt line got quite backed up. Clearer line. People were in 3 different lines trying to get to the same 2 people handing them out.	Aug 10, 2011 8:36 PM

31	Picked up packet at Wig's Wheels	Aug 10, 2011 8:05 PM
32	registered online	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM

1	long wait and they ran out of plates	Aug 30, 2011 8:32 AM
2	Cafeteria not glamorous, but easier.	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
3	Had to wait a long time for alfredo topped pasta.	Aug 23, 2011 9:05 PM
4	There were no plates when we arrived. Waited 15 min and then there ws limited food	Aug 23, 2011 5:37 AM
5	Less people than in previous years and it was a good ways from the packet pickup. Why not have it outside in the courtyard?	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
6	Didn't have the same ambiance as Classic, but the food was still good. Maybe have the dinner not in the cafeteria, but instead located a little closer to the packet pickup and registration. Advertise it more. Didn't seem like as many people.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
7	it was awesome!	Aug 16, 2011 6:18 PM
8	Food was excellent as always!	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
9	Finding where the food was served was very confusing.	Aug 14, 2011 3:43 PM
10	need a whole grain or wheat pasta option	Aug 13, 2011 9:33 PM
11	Was much more of a value when cost of pig out was included in race entry fee. However, I certainly don't want to raise the cost of entry any more.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
12	good foo, maybe some different types of drinks next time	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
13	While socially enjoyable, I'm not crazy about the food. Afterward I feel like I need to go get something to eat.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
14	Didn't see signs for it at the school.	Aug 11, 2011 8:36 AM
15	They only had two pans out of pasta and kept running out so it took a short line a while to get through. To go boxes were a great idea.	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
16	Great food as usual.	Aug 11, 2011 8:20 AM
17	Didn't get to eat-but Classics did the food so there is no question it was EXCELLENT!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
18	Was very good food at a good price	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM

19	I liked the location	Aug 10, 2011 10:14 PM
20	At the time we went through the line, around 6:15, there were no plates, no salad, and no pasta. The caterers were making a trip to the restaurant just for salad. They returned without plates. On another trip after this they brought in fresh pasta. It was all good food, but the timing was not up to par with what we expected from Classic on Noble.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
21	See above comments about running out of food and plates.	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM

Page 2, Q7. This is the first year we had the packet pickup at Anniston High School. How did it go?

1	Picked up at Wigs.	Aug 29, 2011 11:21 PM
2	It would be way easier if yall have the bib numbers in the packets as well as the shirts.. too a long time the morning of the race to get your packet. Its more time involved before the race, but will help in moving the line along in the morning.	Aug 26, 2011 10:24 AM
3	It was a great location and worked well for those coming in from out-of-town. It needs to be a bit more organized and easier to get your package for those that are pre-registered.	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM
4	It was the best for me. Im a nurse and I can't leave until my shift is over	Aug 25, 2011 2:47 PM
5	I picked up at Wig's Wheels.	Aug 24, 2011 1:33 PM
6	didn't attend	Aug 24, 2011 11:18 AM
7	Picked up at Wigs	Aug 23, 2011 10:17 AM
8	My daughter made the packet pick-up.	Aug 23, 2011 9:29 AM
9	N/A	Aug 23, 2011 8:39 AM
10	Did not pick up at Anniston High.	Aug 23, 2011 7:30 AM
11	I bet packet pickup was at Anniston High when I ran back in the 1980's so this wasn't the first time!	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
12	Clearly marked areas to pick up packet.	Aug 23, 2011 6:22 AM
13	We picked up at Wigs	Aug 22, 2011 11:55 AM
14	N/A	Aug 21, 2011 9:37 PM
15	Not enough room at Anniston High School. Much better last year with everything outside.	Aug 19, 2011 9:36 PM

17	N/A	Aug 16, 2011 8:57 PM

Page 2, Q7. This is the first year we had the packet pickup at Anniston High School. How did it go?

18	I picked my packet up at Wig's.	Aug 16, 2011 7:56 AM
19	While it did not have the same look as Classic on Noble, there was a benefit to having it at the race site.	Aug 14, 2011 8:53 PM
20	Loved that it was indoors. Well organized!!	Aug 13, 2011 4:47 PM
21	Way too slow at pick up	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
22	For someone not very familiar with the High School, a sign pointing me in the right direction for packet pickup would have been appreciated, but I found it on my own.	Aug 12, 2011 6:49 PM
23	I didn't do pickup at AHS, but survey requires an answer.	Aug 12, 2011 3:44 PM
24	Atmosphere is not as festive as at Classic, but I understand why it needed to be moved.	Aug 12, 2011 1:22 PM
25	shirt size should be available	Aug 12, 2011 11:10 AM
26	Friend picked it up for me. So, NA	Aug 12, 2011 10:14 AM
27	I am not sure. Someone picked up my packet for me.	Aug 12, 2011 8:13 AM

31	NA	Aug 11, 2011 2:23 PM
32	Other than running out of shirts it seemed great. Maybe want to put pins in bag rather than go to separate station for them.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
33	I picked my family's packets up at Wig's Wheels.	Aug 11, 2011 9:07 AM
34	picked up at wigs wheels	Aug 11, 2011 8:46 AM
35	Did pickup at Wig's Wheels.	Aug 11, 2011 8:25 AM
36	The atmosphere of the pigout this year was lacking. Hardly any attendance, no chocolate fountain, no "fellowship" to speak of. Would suggest moving back to Classic.	Aug 11, 2011 8:25 AM
37	During the crowd crunch the Packet pickup got bogged down.	Aug 11, 2011 8:20 AM
38	Just restructure-see #5.	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
39	Went to WIGS	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 AM
40	Pick mine up at Wigs	Aug 11, 2011 7:29 AM
41	Did not pick up my packet there.	Aug 11, 2011 7:28 AM
42	It was definitely not as congested as classic, but there was not much	Aug 11, 2011 6:41 AM communication after handing the packet. I thought there were more vendors so ended up wandering around the school until I realized people were going that way for the pasta pigout and all the vendors were in the lobby.

Page 2, Q7. This is the first year we had the packet pickup at Anniston High School. How did it go?

43	Pls say something like, "Don't forget to pick up some safety pins - on the table da da da. . . ."	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
44	I'm from Anniston originally (now live out of town) so I knew where the HS was located, but doing packet pick up there did 2 things for me. 1: It got me excited for the race b/c I could see the set-up starting to take place; and 2: Due to seeing the set up, it was a good reminder of which streets would be closed and which way I'd need to enter the HS on Saturday morning. I would suggest to always have packet pickup at the school on Friday night!	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
45	No comment- I picked up at Wigs Wheels and was very happy.	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
46	same as above	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM

50	More directional signs and more volunteers to hand out packets would improve the flow.	Aug 10, 2011 8:21 PM
51	I picked up my packet and four for friends. You were out of the right size t-shirt for one of us. It was nice that I could do that though, to ease their early morning. (Out of town friends.)	Aug 10, 2011 8:16 PM
52	I picked mine up @ Wig's	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM
53	next time i will know to bring money for all the vendors :)	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM

1	Missed the coupon from Fleet Feet in the goody bag	Aug 30, 2011 12:19 PM
2	Race logo should be bigger and regular material!	Aug 30, 2011 6:29 AM
3	I would have liked the women's shirts to be in the bright colored green, not light.	Aug 29, 2011 11:21 PM
4	Maybe you could consider adding safety pins to the packets so you can pin your bib to yourself.	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
5	packet was primarily fliers	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
6	It would be nice if the number bib were a stick-on so you didnt have to poke holes in the shirt.	Aug 23, 2011 7:36 AM
7	Love the technical t shirts and design!	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM

8	Loved the shirt!	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
9	Goody bag was OK only because most of the items were Calhoun County related items. Since I am from out of town it was not as meaningful. However, my running is for my health, not goody bags so this is not a major item for me.	Aug 14, 2011 8:53 PM
10	Great Job guys and gals.	Aug 13, 2011 4:47 PM
11	I am a fan of 100% cotton shirts I think people wear them more often because they are way more comfortable than the poly race shirts plus the benefit you get for your event is more advertising by people wearing them. Yes I know some hard core runners like the poly for running in but for all else cotton shirts can't be beat for comfort!	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
12	Wish I had known the shirts were dry-fit, though I might have just missed that in the info. I ordered a men's shirt thinking it was a regular t-shirt. I will know next year.	Aug 12, 2011 3:44 PM
13	Items not very useful.	Aug 12, 2011 11:21 AM
14	shirt size particularly with a pre registered race	Aug 12, 2011 11:10 AM
15	Loved the bib!	Aug 12, 2011 7:42 AM
16	we were missing safety pins in two of our bags	Aug 11, 2011 4:37 PM
17	I LOVE my shirt!!	Aug 11, 2011 4:17 PM
18	I like more stuff than paper in a goody bag, but I'm just being picky. Thanks for the pens!	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
19	I like that future local race registration forms and information were included in the packet. Consider including an Anniston Runners Club information packet and registration form separate from the Woodstock registration newsletter.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
20	There really wasn't much to the goody bag and not everyone enjoys wearing a neon green t-shirt.	Aug 11, 2011 3:06 PM
21	Not sure what a DTAG is	Aug 11, 2011 2:43 PM
22	The materials & design of the shirt was nice, but the sizing seemed to run large (last year & this year both) and I really dislike the raglan-style neckline. It never lies flat! I recognize this could just be my body that it doesn't sit well on though...	Aug 11, 2011 2:01 PM
23	Liked the list of door prize donators in bag. Also liked the race fliers for future races.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
24	I loved the DTag!!!!!!	Aug 11, 2011 9:41 AM
25	Might want to throw in some safety pins	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
26	I wish there was a better way to put the number bib on your shirt without having to use pins.	Aug 11, 2011 9:07 AM
27	Love the shirts and fabric but a different cut/style in shirt each year would be nice. Color was fun though this year! Loved the colored Woodstock though.	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM

28	My bib did not have any safety pins....so I didn't wear it during the race.	Aug 11, 2011 8:04 AM
29	Love the Women's-specific shirts, and offering size XS. Also liked the disposable D-tag and the stickers at the end with time and stats.	Aug 11, 2011 7:28 AM
30	Not a lot of "goodies" in the bag-mostly flyers	Aug 11, 2011 7:14 AM
31	I think the shirts "ran large." If u agree, please forewarn people next year.	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
32	got shorted a flashlight	Aug 10, 2011 10:02 PM
33	All items were wonderful. By far the nicest goody bag I've received at a race. And the shirts are AWESOME! Can't wait to wear mine and show all of my friends!	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
34	thank you for the safety pins!	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
35	Having the bibs with the timing chips in them would be cool!	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM
36	This was my first time, but the "goody" bag didn't really seem like it had that many goodies. Then again, I don't really believe in the value of random plastic junk. Is a goody bag even necessary?	Aug 10, 2011 8:16 PM
37	More samples of items in the goody bags instead of so many publications	Aug 10, 2011 8:06 PM
38	needs more local race registration forms like Julie Diener, Gamecock Gallop, Golden Eagle 5k. and maybe some safety pins...for the bib	Aug 10, 2011 8:01 PM

Page 2, Q9. This year we gave back to the groups who support Woodstock with a Group Challenge, not based on averaged time to win competition. The largest group wins a $500 donation to the charity of choice. What did you think of this?

1	Could we do both? Compete and give back?	Aug 30, 2011 2:27 PM
2	I run for the competition and not to raise money. We have 2 special needs kids and people ask why I don't run for them. I was an athlete way before. If I want to donate to a cause, I will. Runners seem to be getting forced into donating to every cause.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
3	Bring back the team challenge for some real competition.	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
4	I feel the club gives away enough money without forking over another $1000. Bring back the Team Challenge and make people earn the award!	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
5	Didn't like this concept.	Aug 14, 2011 5:47 PM
6	I was a member of the Depot Dashers team that won the largest business group. We donated our winnings to the Wounded Warrior Project. This was a great idea and a wonderful incentive. It was a win-win for charity fund raising because it likely increased Woodstock 5k race registration which increased the amount donated to UCP and Special Olympics; and, the charity of choice for the winners received $500.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM

Page 2, Q9. This year we gave back to the groups who support Woodstock with a Group Challenge, not based on averaged time to win competition. The largest group wins a $500 donation to the charity of choice. What did you think of this?

7	Future Team Challenge should be age graded rather than classifications.	Aug 11, 2011 1:17 PM
8	I liked it better then competing teams. I know I helped round a small team up and a lot of them would not have come out and walk/jog Woodstock if not for this challenge. So I think it gets more people involved for sure!	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
9	I think charity donations are always great. Perhaps you can find a way to do both. The largest number aspect is great for helping to get people involved in the event. Fastest is great for deriving completion and perhaps even some ongoing rivalry that will bring long term support for the event. So I think they both have their positive side.	Aug 11, 2011 8:12 AM
10	I didn't participate in the Team Challenge, but the only thing I would say is you may get a lot of people to sign up, but don't race just to have a BIG Team. That is not fair to the teams who actually train and run the 5k. So maybe having the largest Team to FINISH or split the money, largest team and fastest team time $250 each.	Aug 11, 2011 6:41 AM
11	MUCH prefer the team challenge where teams race each other!	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM
12	To spur competition in this, the a running total of the number of registrants in each of the top teams could be posted on the pre-race website.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
13	Either is fine.	Aug 10, 2011 7:42 PM

1	Pretty sure the mile markers, esp. mile 1, were way off.	Aug 31, 2011 1:00 PM
2	Water slide was a great motivater for children to push harder in the kidstock.	Aug 30, 2011 9:14 PM
3	You ran out of water..my friends are new runners and when they got to water station there was NO water	Aug 30, 2011 6:29 AM
4	Love, love, love the cold towels. Did I say love!!!! Also, what's with all the hills! I was dying - just kidding, but it was tough. Also, loved all the people cheering us on, especially those in Woodstock garb!!	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
5	Careful of the towels - green one's can bleed on clothes. Music suggestion: "The bird's the word"	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
6	The timers at mile markers 1 and 2 were WAY off. Not a big deal because most use their watch as a backup.	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM
7	overall everything was very good	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
8	Steve was nice but SUPER annoying -- also only cheered for people he knew crossing the finish line, it seemed	Aug 24, 2011 7:29 PM

10	a few kids fell at the start of the mile.	Aug 23, 2011 8:55 PM
11	It would have been nice to have the music inside (all post race activities inside). Need more space - use the gym.	Aug 23, 2011 1:56 PM
12	I know with that many people it is hard to have a good start...thats just part of it. thanks for the corrals, just wish people would have respected you guys wishes and got where they really would have ended up..i did and i still had to pass many many people (even through mile 2). Not your fault and you cant change people. thats why I said ok. to start quest.	Aug 23, 2011 1:18 PM
13	Music to loud!	Aug 23, 2011 9:55 AM
14	It is still difficult to hear near then back of the pack.	Aug 23, 2011 9:29 AM
15	We had 2 children who did not run and they enjoyed the kids corral. Also we had 2 seven year olds who ran and they went straight to the corral after the race as a meeting place. Excellent idea. We will be back next year with more runners.	Aug 23, 2011 8:53 AM
16	We are so proud of the Anniston Football, cheerleaders and band. You never hear about the good kids. They are leaders of their school and it shed a different light on how I felt about the school. You always hear bad things, We need to hear more about these good lids and it needs to be in the Anniston Star!!!!!!!	Aug 23, 2011 7:41 AM
17	Music at the finish line is a little too loud.	Aug 23, 2011 7:30 AM
18	The mile markers were not in the correct location as I split at least 30 seconds short at the mile 1 clock. Who knows after that. For a "National Championship Race" I would think this would not occur. It's a foot race, not a kiddie park. Not sure why you would need the inflatables. Save the rental money and lower the entry.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
19	No towels on mile 2, slip hazard No water bottles, but cups instead	Aug 23, 2011 6:22 AM
20	Not enough police service	Aug 22, 2011 11:18 PM
21	The start and finish lines are professional race quality. I could hear better at the start this year than previously. The NEABA aid station is phenomenal...those guys really have fun with it. The DDs need a volunteer training session. They didn't do a good job cheering on the course and they did an even poorer job at helping on Friday night to direct people where to go.	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
22	The NEABA station was awesome. They always outdo themselves. The DD girls need to have a little more enthusiasm. On Friday night at the dinner, they didn't even greet people at the door. Just sat there and looked at people as they entered. Maybe they need a training session.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
23	everything was good!	Aug 16, 2011 6:18 PM
24	Put mile marker signs at every mile!	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
25	cold towels at finish were great. announcer was great. time was off at mile 1. will definitely appreciate kids activities when my kids are older.	Aug 14, 2011 12:32 PM
26	I think your announcer should call out more runner nsmes than the few he knew...giving him a spotter with a list of the runners would help...people love to	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM

	hear their names called out ad the approach the finish....I know you can't do for everyone coming in when it is crowded but he could called out a lot more.
27	water towels rocked!!!	Aug 12, 2011 1:32 PM
28	Maybe I missed the communication about the water slide, but my kids weren't prepared for it (didn't have a change of clothes, towel....)	Aug 12, 2011 1:22 PM
29	Great Job!	Aug 12, 2011 11:21 AM
30	Loved cold towels. At the finish line I would suggest moving the turn into the AHS parking lot down to the next entrance. I seems very conjested when you are running fast at the end.	Aug 11, 2011 6:01 PM
31	Those cold towels were amazing. Would make sense to have a collection bucket, though, to bleach and reuse for the next year. Tried to return mine and was told to throw it away. Seemed like a waste of resources.	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
32	The whold course was very well organized. Consider: 1) making the start line corrals more visible; 2) making sports drinks more plentiful at the finish line; and, 3) organizing the vendors into areas by function/discipline (i.e., food area, clothing/shoes, future local race registration; race admin area; race results area, etc.).	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
33	I really didn't pay attention to the music or the announcer, as I felt woozy after the race.	Aug 11, 2011 3:06 PM
34	The music was too loud prior to race, Could not hear anything well.	Aug 11, 2011 10:55 AM
35	Water events with kids can be difficult. My kids wanted to be in the water slide, but I didn't want them wet..... We didn't come prepared for that. I'd recommend we stick to dry inflatables next year, maybe even more of them!	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
36	All very well done. Loved the cold towels - maybe consider @ 1 mile as well?	Aug 11, 2011 10:20 AM
37	Start too narrow (but don't move it off Woodstock) Move structures back off street. Don't make me cross finish line 1/10 mile into the race.. bad voodoo I'm oblivious to water stations during run	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
38	This is the best race I've ever attended. It had plenty of water, wet towels, and FUN for the kids! My kids loved it and so did I. The popcicles were a great idea too!	Aug 11, 2011 9:41 AM
39	Steve always adds an extra bit of pizzazz to the proceedings and personalizes it for so many folks!	Aug 11, 2011 9:31 AM
40	I really didn't notice any course markings	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
41	First mile clock was off by over a minute. Didn't pay attention to the second so I can't comment.	Aug 11, 2011 8:15 AM
42	Everything was great! All Volunteers were so wonderful!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
43	Great race! I enjoyed the support from everyone along the race course.	Aug 11, 2011 8:12 AM
44	I didn't realize there would be a water slide, or I would have brought my	Aug 11, 2011 8:04 AM

45	Need to bring extra kids clothes next time;)	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 AM
46	need to go back to the sponges, the towels had green dye coming out when you rung the water out, were not as refreshing as the sponges	Aug 11, 2011 7:19 AM
47	Green towels faded on your clothes!	Aug 11, 2011 7:07 AM
48	Maybe a little better instructions for the water stops. Thye were passing out water at the .5 mile mark that was meant for Kidstock.	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM
49	what cold towels? open fire hydrants were great, thanks.	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
50	A great atmosphere! Even the residents that lived on the race course were friendly. Many residents waved and encouraged the runners. As I said, a great atmosphere!	Aug 10, 2011 11:36 PM
51	Reroute the course to bypass Rocky hollow road.	Aug 10, 2011 11:13 PM
52	loved cold towels!	Aug 10, 2011 11:10 PM
53	The AHS football players and band were AWESOME	Aug 10, 2011 10:50 PM
54	I've gotta be honest: Steve Stevens just gets on my nerves. His voice bugs me, but I'm sure that locals who listen to K98 love him. I just tuned him out for the day :) Whoever thought of doing the cold towels at mile2 and finish is a GENIUS! Seriously, that cold green towel at mile 2 saved my race and helped me find the strength to continue through the heat.	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
55	Couldn't tell if the moon jump and water slide were free for all to enjoy of just for those in the corral. We didn't let our little girl play on any of it.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
56	Outstanding job!!!	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
57	Not sure we need that many towels at mile 2	Aug 10, 2011 9:11 PM
58	Did not run event this year.	Aug 10, 2011 8:37 PM
59	Loved the cold towels (better than sponges), but would reccomend white ones not colored. The green bled on shirt and would not wash out. There was another group at the finish line handing out white ones that were scented with eucalyptus. Loved the scent!	Aug 10, 2011 8:36 PM
60	Although I did not bring my own kids this year. I will next year now that I know all this is offered for them! Very nice and organized	Aug 10, 2011 8:20 PM
61	The DDs need some serious talking to about how to be high quality volunteers. At the kids corral, they were hanging around with each other chatting, rather than actually watching the kids that were in the moon bounce and on the water slide. Not cool. They need to understand that they are there to work, not socialize.	Aug 10, 2011 8:16 PM
62	Although there is a clock at mile 2, it would be nice to have a mile marker sign there and a clock at the 3 mile. I did love the funny encouragement signs along the course! Please make more!!	Aug 10, 2011 8:06 PM

Page 2, Q11. This was our first year to have a suggested corral start based upon your projected time. How did it work?

	aparatus should move to the rear.
2	Never been to previous races	Aug 30, 2011 5:56 PM
3	Many overestimate their 5k time... but corral did help	Aug 30, 2011 2:20 PM
4	There were still a lot of people up front that weren't that fast. Perhaps some lines in the road for separate corrals.	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM
5	I liked it	Aug 25, 2011 2:47 PM
6	people did not comply for the most part - perhaps if walkers were asked to move to the rear it would be the same difference	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
7	I didn't see the corral signs. Whoops!	Aug 24, 2011 7:29 PM
8	although the help was minimal. it seemed that most people didnt pay attention to it or didnt care.	Aug 24, 2011 10:14 AM
9	Some slower folks and walkers didn't seem to follow the suggested times. Could just be that the race is getting so big that this will just be a problem at the beginning.	Aug 24, 2011 7:40 AM
10	People who get up front and then walk should be publically flogged.	Aug 23, 2011 9:05 PM
11	The corral is essential with as many runners as there are. I was impressed when runners/walkers moved around when the announcement was made. Perhaps the announcement could be made several times as people are gathering at the start to help get them in the correct positions to begin with.	Aug 23, 2011 1:56 PM
12	I answered this in the earlier question however, I am not sure about the previous year because I think i got closer to the front than where I did this year. I am sure it helped ease it some.	Aug 23, 2011 1:18 PM
13	see above	Aug 23, 2011 9:41 AM
14	With electronic timing I think people know that even in the back you are not at a disadvantage.	Aug 23, 2011 8:53 AM
15	There was improvement, but some people either were unaware of the corrals or ignored them. A stroller and/or dog corral at the end of the start would be a good addition.	Aug 23, 2011 7:30 AM
16	Numerous people do not abide by the time slots.	Aug 23, 2011 7:26 AM
17	I started behind the "elites" and still had trouble.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
18	I thought this worked great. The congestion was much improved compared to previous years. I wasn't crowded at all after passing the finish line (the first time). I suggest a few ways to improve this: 1. Either face the signs parallel to the street on both sides or set them in the middle of the street. 2. Elevate the signs 3. Divide the corrals even further	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
19	there were many slow-pokes toward the front of the line. need to have marshalls patrol corrals and be verbal about proper alignment. people walking at the start	Aug 21, 2011 9:37 PM

	and being at the front corrals doesn't get it.
20	Liked it. Most people seemed to self corral just fine. You'll always have those who won't. Probably need it broken down into more designations. But it seemed to help.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
21	No matter what you do.....folks just don't pay attention to corrals	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
22	This was a great idea. If I were an elite runner, this would have been very much appreciated. Even being "back in the pack", I like the idea because it gave me a peer group to judge my pace.	Aug 14, 2011 8:53 PM
23	Non-runners didn't understand and lined up in front anyway.	Aug 14, 2011 5:47 PM
24	It seemed like it worked but i have no frame of reference	Aug 14, 2011 3:43 PM
25	i think it helped some. there will always be novices tearing off at a 5 minute pace. luckily the course allows enough room to avoid too much congestion and problems passing.	Aug 14, 2011 12:32 PM
26	The signs were too low to get noticed by the runners they need to be raised up at least another 3 feet or more.	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
27	Never raced before, but I liked it.	Aug 12, 2011 3:44 PM
28	In the past I had to weave in and out for the first 1/4 to 1/2 mile. With the corral system this was not an issue. It was also helpful with the announcement at the start of the race about corral system. But most of all the runners like me followed the instructions, mindful of the other runners.	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 PM
29	I have not raced before, but seemed to have to run around a lot of people, most people did not seem to pay much attention the appropriate race corrals. I was in my correct time, but next year will start further up to avoid the slower runners.	Aug 11, 2011 6:21 PM
30	It may have helped a little-still too many walkers at the front, but I don't think the organizers can change this. People do that in all races.	Aug 11, 2011 6:01 PM
31	The concept is correct, but I was in the 25-30 corral and I'm not quite sure why we still came to a stand still if everyone ahead was running. I'd turn the signs parallel to the street, too, as people were having a hard time seeing them unless they already knew where they were. Better signage would help or chalked street markings.	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
32	That is to say it may have made a difference if it were more visible. Most participants lined up not knowing that corrals existed. The signs should be more visible so that participants can easily identify the area they should corral into.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
33	It seemed to help however, I just have this year to go by.	Aug 11, 2011 3:06 PM
34	My first race. Nothing to compare to.	Aug 11, 2011 12:50 PM
35	Not really sure how well it worked, but it's a great idea.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
36	I was unaware of the corrals. Get those signs out in the crowd rather than hidden on the sides. People ignored them. You have to get serious about	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM seeding to get through to some people.

37	I'm a walker/jogger and it really helped to be out of the way of the fast guys at the beginning of the race.	Aug 11, 2011 9:31 AM
38	My first Woodstock	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
39	the idea was great- but not many people followed it	Aug 11, 2011 9:10 AM
40	More people needed to have paid attention to the corrals.	Aug 11, 2011 9:07 AM
41	But its a great idea	Aug 11, 2011 8:36 AM
42	Since this was my first time I thought it was very useful in my case and it really helped me to know that the corral that I was in, was exactly were I needed to be.	Aug 11, 2011 8:34 AM
43	I think we need to make mandatory corrals. It worked better this year but still not great. If you put signs, they might need to be on both sides. I knew they were out there but due to the crow they were very difficult to find. They need to be higher as well.	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
44	Because I was actually working "START" of 1 mile/2mile Clocks w/Radios could not tell if this worked or not. Was just about last person to hit the course!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
45	This was WONDERFUL! It really made the entire process so much easier!	Aug 11, 2011 8:04 AM
46	Seemed to work well. This was my first Woodstock	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 AM
47	There were and will always be persons in corrals that should actually be in corrals further back.	Aug 11, 2011 7:26 AM
48	Perhaps make suggestions more clear (i.e., which side of the 25-30 min sign should I be on?)	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
49	It was a great idea. The signs were not very visible though. Make them bigger next year and encourage the participants to start at their projected time. If they go closer to the start line it won't help them run faster.	Aug 10, 2011 10:14 PM
50	People don't respect corals unless there are physical barriers	Aug 10, 2011 10:02 PM
51	This was my first Woodstock race, but it seen that the suggested corral was useful, some runners still try to pass earlier than they may had anticipated, but was good in general.	Aug 10, 2011 10:01 PM
52	I don't really have an opinion since this was my first Woodstock 5k, but it seemed very organized and was not congested through the start line area. I enjoyed it because I didn't have to worry if I was in someone's way, and people weren't all clumped up.	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
53	There were a number of people in the 20-25 minute corral that did not belong any where near there. These people either didn't listen to the announcements or didn't have a clue about the time they would run. It might help to have a corral at the end for people with strollers and dogs so as to not clog things up. I think the corrals are a good idea, but it might help to send groups out at 30 second intervals.	Aug 10, 2011 9:47 PM

Page 2, Q11. This was our first year to have a suggested corral start based upon your projected time. How did it work?

54	Got in the back of my corral to be respectful and ended up having to pass in the street gutters the road was so full of people running slower than my pace. Next time I'll move toward the front.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
55	Since this was my first time running the race, I have no point of comparison, but I thought it a very fair approach to give the better runners a premium line-up spot. There was congestion where I was lined up, but given the d-tag timing and the fact I'm a very middle-of-the-pack runner, that is to be expected. I was happy with the corrals.	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
56	Not only did it help to ease congestion, but it eased confusion. It separated out people according to their projected time, so I thought it was great and very much needed!	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
57	It was my 1st race but I liked the idea. Oh sure there were some that lined up in the front when they should not have been but it still was a good idea.	Aug 10, 2011 9:06 PM
58	Have more next year. Include a 30-35 minute corral, etc.	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM
59	Na	Aug 10, 2011 8:37 PM
60	I was honest in getting in correct corral and people were already walking in front of me before turning on 11th St. Very discouraging.	Aug 10, 2011 8:27 PM
61	My first Woodstock, but I like the corral start based on projected race time.	Aug 10, 2011 8:21 PM
62	I guess it helped a tiny bit with walkers at least bit it was still congested at the first of race but not for long. Bit loved the corral idea	Aug 10, 2011 8:20 PM
63	People who don't understand, don't see the importance in it! It is frustrating, but some people won't listen! I also recommend NO Dogs allowed!!! They are a tripping hazard!	Aug 10, 2011 8:06 PM
64	I think it would be a great idea to have a narrow start along with corralling so once you cross the start line there is room on either side to pass if needed. Sure it will take longer for everyone to get started but once you start you will have room to set your own pace quickly.	Aug 10, 2011 8:01 PM
65	I would like to see a mandatory corral for everyone trying to finish under 30 minutes.	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM
66	1st Woodstock.	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM
67	Loved it! Thank you!	Aug 10, 2011 7:42 PM

1	We had to leave early for soccer at Faith.	Aug 30, 2011 9:14 PM
2	need a unique trophy. everybody gives the old ugly gold dust collectors.	Aug 30, 2011 3:38 PM

3	liked having trak shak and massage. Never heard/saw the band.	Aug 30, 2011 2:27 PM
4	should have post race beer	Aug 30, 2011 8:52 AM
5	Everything seemed good. I have no complaints.	Aug 30, 2011 8:33 AM
6	I'll likely never be dealing with the prizes or trophies!	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
7	Most runners want healthy food after the race, the idea of taco bell was disgusting.. You are only encouraging people to eat unhealthy.. I wanted fruit, granola bars, etc.. couldnt find that anywhere	Aug 26, 2011 10:24 AM
8	could have more vendors	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
9	older age groups need more divisions- i did not sty for the awards	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
10	No one wants tacos after running a 5K -- just saying. Waffle House was great though!!	Aug 24, 2011 7:29 PM
11	I would love to see more money in the Masters ranks. More of your demographic are in this age range.	Aug 23, 2011 8:55 PM
12	I didn't win a door prize, but I thought it was a good idea to have a list of winners available so you didn't have to wait.	Aug 23, 2011 12:18 PM
13	consider the nfive year groupings in then 75 -90 year agen groups. You nwill soon probably have a 90 year old in the run if he keeps going.	Aug 23, 2011 9:29 AM
14	Band was GREAT!	Aug 23, 2011 7:51 AM
15	Both of my kids recieved door prizes from the Christian book store (Bible cards) that were very cheap and not worth standing in line for. They were excited to find out that they won something and then disappointed that it was not even as good as something you would get in a kids meal from McDonalds. On the other hand, I won a $20 Dad's gift certificate- AWESOME!	Aug 23, 2011 7:36 AM
16	The website hawked the bobblehead trophies. I was disappointed not to recieve one as an age group winner. All trophies for your event should feature the bobblehead as indicated on the website. Awards ceremony could feature the door prizes to get the crowd to stay longer. Band could move inside as well.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
17	The food area was very congested and it was hard to get my food. Why not move this outside in the courtyard? I like the courtyard feel, but didn't like the disconnect between it and the finish line.	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
18	Gatorade was watery and it seemed harder to find a drink afterwards this year than last year.	Aug 22, 2011 11:55 AM
19	didn;t know there was any food. i was surprised to hear later that the food was inside. maybe some signs or annoucements as people finish the race that food is available	Aug 21, 2011 9:37 PM
20	Liked having the Awards Ceremony inside,but did feel a certain disconnect with everyone having the area so split apart. Vendors? I saw only a few. Maybe do a better job getting some.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM

21	Loved having the ceremony inside where it was nice and cool.	Aug 17, 2011 10:09 AM
22	Move post race party back outside! Too crowded inside and lots of people didn't even know where it was or if there was anything.	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
23	hopefully i'll win a prize/trophy next time!	Aug 14, 2011 12:32 PM
24	I loved the football team, cheerleaders, & band cheering you on as you turn up woodstock.	Aug 13, 2011 3:05 PM
25	I always complain about the awards too much talk and not enough moving the awards along that is why in my opinion usually only the winners hang around for them...this year many people did not know/remember they were in the auditorium...I am afraid it is too far from the street!	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
26	AC in auditorium was awesome	Aug 12, 2011 1:32 PM
27	The vendors were especially nice and it was great to have so many choices.	Aug 12, 2011 1:22 PM
28	everyone wants a bobblehead not just the kids	Aug 12, 2011 11:10 AM
29	Would have liked to have had a Diet Coke - could not find any	Aug 12, 2011 7:42 AM
30	Felt more like a marathon than a 5K. I've never seen so much food at a finish. I'm pretty sure y'all are still eating race leftovers. :-)	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
31	There was a large selection of food items for all participants...very nicely done; however, I would have appreciated a choice of healthy food items too - hey you can't make everyone happy all the time, right. None-the-less it was nicely done. Also see comments question 10.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
32	The oranges and watermelon were a good idea. More fruit such as apples, bananas, etc. would have been nice after the race. The pizza and taco bell items were not very good after running a 5k at 8:00 a.m.	Aug 11, 2011 3:06 PM
33	Do we really need that many awards/age groups/special categories? I like winning something as much as anyone, but it felt a little ridiculous this year.	Aug 11, 2011 2:01 PM
34	Only drank after race. Did not stay for awards. Loved the frozen popsicles.	Aug 11, 2011 12:50 PM
35	Maybe need to make more announcements about door prize location. I left fairly early so I'm not sure if any were made. I didn't hear any while I was there. I know that there were a number of unclaimed ones. I know that you had signs up & directions in e-mails, but maybe more announcements are needed. Loved Taco Bell being there.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
36	Awards ceremony was very comfortable being inside, easy to hear and vendors / food were great!	Aug 11, 2011 10:20 AM
37	I will not stand in a line which goes across a room and out a door and down steps. If you're going to have finish line food, figure out a way to move people through faster. I have learned, and brought my own food and drinks. When I finally found where you pick up door prizes, my granddaughter's was already taken! What's up with that? She got a consolation prize, as did I. But if door prizes are to a food establishment, remember VEGETARIANS.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM

38	Would like to see Fleet Feet involved if they were willing.	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
39	the awards were very long. i didn't hear the band, i wish there was more vendor- i brought what was there.	Aug 11, 2011 9:10 AM
40	Our group went to eat breakfast afterwards	Aug 11, 2011 8:46 AM
41	it seemed really spread out this year	Aug 11, 2011 8:36 AM
42	Left right after race, had to work that day.	Aug 11, 2011 8:25 AM
43	unfortunately I left right after the race and didn't get to visit or see any of this but I know everything was great!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
44	We were late getting to the awards ceremony, because we never heard an announcement that it was about to start.	Aug 11, 2011 8:04 AM
45	Just ran and left. Didnt think I would win anything	Aug 11, 2011 7:35 AM
46	may need more room for the inside food and vendor area, was very congested	Aug 11, 2011 7:19 AM
47	A lot of people didn't know where to go for the food, or for the awards ceremony	Aug 11, 2011 7:14 AM
48	No one knew where the food was or the awards.	Aug 11, 2011 7:07 AM
49	A little more direction for vendors of where to set up. We had to hunt for someone to tell us where to set up. We asked the previous evening at packet pick-up but were told they would let us know in the morning. In the morning I was sent 3 different places to find someone to tell me where to set up.	Aug 11, 2011 6:41 AM
50	Need better directions as to where the awards were. Several people did not know.	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM
51	I felt a bit lost after the finish. How would I know where to look for pizza, watermelon etc.?	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
52	didn't stay for awards ceremony	Aug 10, 2011 11:10 PM
53	I like the air conditioned Performing Art Center in the High School as a award ceremony location	Aug 10, 2011 10:14 PM
54	Taco Bell?? I can't imagine who would want a taco or burrito after running 3.1 miles in the August heat, although I did see several people eating it. The thought alone just sort of turns my stomach. The more traditional post-race food inside was spot on. Very fresh and great for post-race recovery.	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
55	I guess you have to take whoever comes as vendors, but it was a strange mix.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
56	The post-race food and vendors were enough to bring me back next year. One of the best post-race scenes I've attended.	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
57	Did not know where all the food was located. possibly have them centrally located if possible	Aug 10, 2011 9:29 PM
58	You do a great job. First class.	Aug 10, 2011 8:37 PM

59	I understand the importance of kids learning to love running, but with the age groups so small (go from 2-5 yrs between groups) the awards ceremony took too long. Have the female cap out at 75 above like mens. I know there are not as many older females, but it is just as important for them to win as little kids. Even if there are only 1-3 females 75 above if they are out doing 3.5 miles they deserve to win! I know my parents love getting trophies even if they did not win since they were the only ones.	Aug 10, 2011 8:36 PM
60	I do not think awards should be held in Performing Arts Center because of our sweaty bodies. I don't believe the Knox Concert management would be happy if they knew this. I think it should be held in the gym.	Aug 10, 2011 8:27 PM
61	Age 65 to 69 were to have own age group and for some reason were grouped with 70 and above.	Aug 10, 2011 8:25 PM
62	Wish the door prizes were for places with more locations you could use them from not just local Anniston shops because some do not live in Anniston and cannot use them	Aug 10, 2011 8:20 PM
63	When doing the age division awards you should be courteous of the older runners and give the older runners there trophy first. And then do the younger. Go older to younger. The older runners work harder than anyone and when they finally get there moment in the spotlight everyone is gone. Not to mention its just the right thing to do.	Aug 10, 2011 8:12 PM
64	Please please please move the vendors and food outside! It's hot, yes, but its august in the south! It took away from people cheering on the later runners. They need cheering too!! It was also too crowded to get food and look at the vendors	Aug 10, 2011 8:06 PM
65	Unfortunately, I left right after I finished the race because my foot was bleeding :o(Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM
66	didnt stay long after finishing	Aug 10, 2011 7:50 PM

Page 2, Q13. How would you rate the following areas related to the Kidstock 1 Mile Run/Walk

1	My daughter was run over by a larger child who was not at the start line when the race started. He sprinted through the field and ran over her because he was out of control. There should be something at the start to direct larger/faster kids to the front.	Sep 4, 2011 9:14 AM
2	Cautions about respect for other runners should be given to the children before the race. My granddaughter was knocked flat on her face by a large boy who simply ran her over. NOT a good experience.	Aug 30, 2011 10:45 PM
3	My daughter came in first in her age group, the 8 year olds and we were not sure if she got a trophy or not.	Aug 30, 2011 9:14 PM
4	would like to see kids compete as a team	Aug 30, 2011 4:10 PM
5	did not witness the details fro the kids race	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM

Page 2, Q13. How would you rate the following areas related to the Kidstock 1 Mile Run/Walk

6	louder announcement to get to the kidstock start line	Aug 24, 2011 11:18 AM
7	chaos of start and kids falling could be improved.	Aug 23, 2011 8:55 PM
8	last year we did a stretch before the race started. some were expecting that again, but the gun just went off. might find some way to prevent trampling of smaller kids. maybe age group the start?	Aug 23, 2011 9:41 AM
9	LOved it that ALL the kids got medals!!!!!!	Aug 23, 2011 7:41 AM
10	Keep it up. Get kids into the sport.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
11	There wasn't any immediate pre-race announcements. All of a sudden a horn just went off and people started running. Even the sound and timing people looked confused and weren't expecting it. This needs MUCH improvement.	Aug 22, 2011 6:31 PM
12	Need to maybe divide into two starting groups - age 10 and up first then younger kids. Congestion is getting dangerous at start line. Maybe a third group of kids running "with" parents	Aug 22, 2011 11:55 AM
13	We couldn't hear anyone at the startline and didn't even know it was starting. No pre-race info, no warning..... this needs to improve drastically.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
14	Again think cotton shirts better...Would like to see awards go deeper on age group for the kids.... Such ad 5 deep male and female. Kids love recognition!	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
15	Need to start the older kids first then a minute or so behind or seperatly the younger. One little girl got knocked down by a big kid!	Aug 11, 2011 6:01 PM
16	Consider marshalling the finish line a little tighter...a large number of people gathered inside of the marshalling lines and some of the kids were confused or maybe even intimidated about crossing the finish line because of all the congestion.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
17	I appreciate that all kids get a medal. I hope we can continue that.	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
18	My 7-year-old granddaughter had a wonderful time. That makes everything else OK.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
19	My little boy loved this! The medals for all finishers was a great idea!	Aug 11, 2011 9:41 AM
20	why do the kids get the woodstock for age group? i am green with envy	Aug 11, 2011 9:10 AM
21	It really was a big hill for the younger kids (4, 3 and under) to run	Aug 11, 2011 8:34 AM
22	Didn't see or participate in Kidstock so have no idea.	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
23	Did not participate this year.	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 AM
24	I THINK THAT EVERYONE DONE A FANTASTIC JOB ON ALLLLL THEIR HARD WORK!	Aug 11, 2011 7:54 AM
25	A loud horn suddenly went off.	Aug 11, 2011 6:51 AM
26	need to consider the smaller kids when starting the race, maybe a staggered start according to age. I witnessed two small kids get ran over at the start, also,	Aug 10, 2011 9:29 PM

lower the age limit to 10 and under. The older kids need to compete in the regular woodstock.

1	Never been to any of the award ceremonies	Aug 30, 2011 5:56 PM
2	Inside was great but I thought it spread things out a little too much	Aug 30, 2011 8:12 AM
3	It felt special.....	Aug 26, 2011 8:42 AM
4	Great to get in the cool indoors after a HOT race. Thanks.	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM
5	per comments I heard later as I did not stay	Aug 25, 2011 1:41 PM
6	Everything was great, except for the bottleneck at the entrance/exit. That could be improved some by posting the door prize results & pickup somewhere other than at the only doors to the refreshment areas.	Aug 23, 2011 7:30 AM
7	The gym would be better as the lobby was very crowded, but much better than being outside	Aug 23, 2011 6:36 AM
8	ABSOLUTELY!	Aug 22, 2011 11:55 AM
9	it was somewhat of a secret	Aug 21, 2011 9:37 PM
10	While I missed the race-morning hoopla outside before the start, it really was okay. I think you should keep it like it was this year.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
11	I have not participated before, but I thought it was nice to be inside and cool off a bit rather than remaining outside in the heat.	Aug 12, 2011 6:49 PM
12	excellent	Aug 12, 2011 1:32 PM
13	I didn't go	Aug 11, 2011 6:21 PM
14	It was a hot, humid morning. Perhaps not as hot and humid as the Rockin on the River 10K in Gadsden, but still it was hot and humid. Having the post-race party and awards ceremony indoors was genius!!!	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
15	I think it gave people a chance to go into the High School who have never been. Great way to utilize the space and always love to see the football players, band and cheerleaders out there cheering us on! I know the waffle house guys appreciated the shade tree this year!!!!	Aug 11, 2011 2:43 PM
16	My first race. Nothing to compare to.	Aug 11, 2011 12:50 PM
17	It was great inside, but too cold.	Aug 11, 2011 12:21 PM
18	Didn't stay for award ceremony. I knew I didn't win so I ate some great food & left.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM

19	Only because of the sweltering heat outside.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM
20	I did not attend	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
21	mixed feelings. Too tight in the school...to hot outside.	Aug 11, 2011 8:36 AM
22	Cold! LOL	Aug 11, 2011 8:25 AM
23	It was FREEZING in the aditorium, but other than that it was good. Maybe a few more signs as to where to go. A banner or something that says Awards ceremony, etc. I don't know how I missed the signs tryign to find it but I did. Eventually i found my way though.	Aug 11, 2011 8:22 AM
24	Again-didn't stay but I have a feeling that being inside was better!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
25	It seemed a bit congested inside getting the food. Keeping it more outside might be my preference. But it was OK overall. Liked that some vendors were still outside. The awards in the auditorium seemed to work well, but it was cool after we were all sweaty/wet.	Aug 11, 2011 7:28 AM
26	AC was set too low ... it was cold in the auditorium.	Aug 11, 2011 7:26 AM
27	As mentioned, people just need to know where the ceremony is, a lot of people didn't stay	Aug 11, 2011 7:14 AM
28	I like it much better outside! Easier to locate people. It was too spread out.	Aug 11, 2011 6:35 AM
29	Awesome venue! Maybe we can find a way to keep the crowd involved. It really thinned out in the final 15 minutes of the awards. Hold door prizes until the end? Have a grand prize drawing at the end?	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
30	Again, no prior point of reference, but I liked it.	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
31	I'm conflicted. I like the indoors, but by doing that it made it harder to socialize...	Aug 10, 2011 8:42 PM

1	Best 5K in the U.S.A. Our newspaper, The Daytona News-Journal, in Daytona Beach, FL won't even print the results of our biggest race of the year by the Daytona Beach Track Club. The Anniston Star is superb!	Aug 30, 2011 11:01 AM
2	I had a great time. This was only my second race, but I had tons of fun and plan on attending again next year.Hope its not as hot!	Aug 26, 2011 3:46 PM
3	I was suppose to run but had an injury so I actually volunteered so my running answers actually do not apply.	Aug 26, 2011 1:09 PM
4	You put on a great race!!!	Aug 25, 2011 10:51 PM

Page 2, Q19. If you have any other comments and/or suggestions, we would love to hear them. Leave them here:

5	Suggestion: Being my 1st 5k, I did not know you could pick up your time cards at the end??? And I got so caught up in everything going on...I forgot about checking to see if I won a door prize...Maybe if more reminders were done it would have sparked pple's memory :)	Aug 25, 2011 9:46 PM
6	I loved it!	Aug 25, 2011 2:47 PM
7	You have something special. Keep up the good work and thanks for all you do!	Aug 23, 2011 8:55 PM
8	GReat Job...Brooke is so much of an asset. When we walked up she was moving trash cans. So many people now days worry about "job descriptions"! She is one that wants the 5K to be a great success and she is there to do anything that needs to be done. Wouldn't it be nice to have employees like that in the work force????	Aug 23, 2011 7:41 AM
9	Again, a stroller corral would be great, or at least encouraging those with strollers or anything else that slows them down to move to corrals farther back.	Aug 23, 2011 7:30 AM
10	I think this race is very well done and kudos to all who work very hard to make it such a special event.	Aug 23, 2011 7:10 AM
11	Good event.	Aug 23, 2011 6:29 AM
12	This is the best 5K one can run. Course is challenging, technical shirt is awesome, and plenty of food and fun. Kidstock run is fantastic!	Aug 19, 2011 9:36 PM
13	Biggest problems I saw were with communication and registration.	Aug 17, 2011 1:52 PM
14	n/a	Aug 16, 2011 6:18 PM
15	this is my 2nd woodstock i will be back next year this is a great race. jerry ledford	Aug 15, 2011 8:00 PM
16	Had a wonderful time, the best 5k race experience anywhere. Move the post race party outside!!! Perhaps consider banning running with dogs!	Aug 14, 2011 9:02 PM
17	The 2010 race was my first 5k, so this event will always be special. It has the "best vibe" of any event that I have participated in by far. The Woody is the best value for anyone considering a 5K!	Aug 14, 2011 8:53 PM
18	please start any/all wheelchair runners either in the front or back. can even start them several minutes earlier. dangerous	Aug 14, 2011 1:54 PM
19	I was really impressed with the entire event. It was such a pleasure to participate in such a wonderful community of runners.	Aug 14, 2011 12:41 PM
20	would have appreciated knowing that the race was chip timed at the begining and end. if runners know there time doesn't start until they cross the start line there is less of a push for folks to be close to the first starting positions. Otherwise, great race, and the really pleased the shirts weren't to smal like in 2009.	Aug 14, 2011 12:32 PM
21	Mayor Gene Robinson and his comments were inappropriate. He did nothing to welcome vistors to Anniston, thank RRCA and Anniston Runners Club for this major tourist event, or encourage guests to visit local merchants. His comments were out of line. Also, the Calhoun County Chamber needs to play a bigger role	Aug 13, 2011 3:05 PM in this event. It has to be one of the top five tourist events in our county. They need to actively support it.

22	Don't ever change the course one of the best of any 5K and very historic plus very difficult!!!!	Aug 13, 2011 1:47 PM
23	start earlier(7am 5k) to beat the heat-or at least on time	Aug 12, 2011 4:52 PM
24	I had no idea how much fun this would be. I was also highly impressed with the Anniston High School football players and band members.	Aug 12, 2011 3:44 PM
25	Just a suggestion.... not sure if "marathon runners" (i.e. the Kenyans, etc.) should be lumped into everybody's else's time. Maybe have a "Marathon Runner" category (that the applicable runners would designate ahead of time as to not to assume) to differentiate and allow regular 5k folks to have a legit shot at placing. Also - I thought the front page Anniston Star article on Sunday Entitled "Divided We Run" was an absolute travesty and a pathetic piece of journalism. I hope Dennis and Co. expressed their dismay at the hit piece. For that so-called writer to sum the experience up in that smarmy way, was ill-conceived and a disgrace. Great job to the Woodstock 5k organizers. Excellent work!!!!	Aug 12, 2011 1:32 PM
26	I really enjoyed this 5K. It was well-organized and well-done. The community support was great - nice to have misting stations along the way in August heat. All volunteers and staff were helpful and so nice. I will drive the distance and do this 5K in lieu of others closer to me because it was that great of an experience.	Aug 12, 2011 7:42 AM
27	My wife and I loved the Woodstock and can't wait to run it next year. t	Aug 12, 2011 6:02 AM
28	More toilet paper in the women's bathroom. Better signage for the corrals. Other than that, keep it up!	Aug 11, 2011 3:39 PM
29	Race Director Dennis Dunn and crew did an excellent job organizing this run. It couldn't have been done better by a professional run organization/management company (i.e., Rock & Roll brand). Lastly, as this is an RRCA National 5k Championship, it would be spectacular to attract a running celebrity to participate in the event. If one can be identified early enough this could be included in marketing literature for the race.	Aug 11, 2011 3:17 PM
30	I will definitely do this next year. It was a wonderful experience. Thank you for the opportunity.	Aug 11, 2011 12:50 PM
31	At end of 5k keep band music near finish line.	Aug 11, 2011 12:25 PM
32	Again-loved addition of Taco Bell. Pizza & orange juice were great, too.	Aug 11, 2011 12:17 PM
33	Great race, great small town feel, really enjoyed the experience. BUT, next year if you could make the weather a little cooler it would be greatly appreciated!!! LOL	Aug 11, 2011 10:49 AM
34	I know this is corny, but being a Snoopy fan, Woodstock has an official song, that is kind of catchy ... you all should find a way to incorporate it, starting music or something... just an ideal. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=laBNXBYCo9o Overall, great race, good job. You all should be commended.	Aug 11, 2011 10:25 AM
35	Put a link to "Woodstock registered runners list" on your website.	Aug 11, 2011 10:06 AM

36	I loved the tags that track your time. I loved the indoor bathroom option and there was plenty of toilet paper! Inflatables with water was a great idea. I loved that we could get our time and category information printed off when we finished the race. Awesome!!!	Aug 11, 2011 9:41 AM
37	Woodstock has become such a great event for everyone. I hope it continues to grow and that more and more people become interested in participating. GREAT JOB!!	Aug 11, 2011 9:31 AM
38	It was a great overall experience, I've ran in bigger races that also cost more and they did'nt compare to the Woodstock.	Aug 11, 2011 9:27 AM
39	Need directional signs and a site map showing where everything is located. Need people at intersections leading to race site to give directions.	Aug 11, 2011 9:17 AM
40	This was my first 5k. There was so much going on, all around me. I really enjoyed it.	Aug 11, 2011 8:43 AM
41	None	Aug 11, 2011 8:42 AM
42	Move the Pasta Pigout back to Classic!	Aug 11, 2011 8:25 AM
43	This Race ROCKS!! Thanks to all who volunteered and sponsored this Event! What a great way to show our Community comes together!!!	Aug 11, 2011 8:13 AM
44	Great Atmosphere. Looking forward to next year. We plan to participate in the Kidstock as well.	Aug 11, 2011 7:57 AM
45	I THINK THAT ANNISTON HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES DONE AN AMAZING JOB AND I THINK OTHER SCHOOLS IN OUR AREA SHOULD BE CHALLENGED TO BE A HUGE PART AS WELL!!!!!! THEY WERE GREAT MOTIVATORS ALONG THE WAY FOR ME!!!!!!	Aug 11, 2011 7:54 AM
46	More water please!	Aug 11, 2011 7:35 AM
47	Again, LOVED the printout of stats at the end, and the women-specific technical shirts, and the fact that you offer size XS. Overall, a very well-run event. Thank you!!	Aug 11, 2011 7:28 AM
48	A job well done - as usual!	Aug 11, 2011 7:26 AM
49	at the start line there were time markers, most people didnt pay attention to them, they were on the side, next year have volunteers stand in the road at certain points holding the signs up so people can see where they need to line up, have them more visual	Aug 11, 2011 7:19 AM
50	After the race I joined the ARC and haven't been contacted in any way or manner. The Woodstock race though was great enjoyed everything about it.	Aug 11, 2011 6:50 AM
51	Make start corrals "mandatory" and easy to understand. Start race on time. U can borrow my watch.	Aug 11, 2011 6:25 AM
52	This was my first 5K. A fantastic experience. I would definitely do this again!	Aug 10, 2011 11:36 PM

54	Would love more info on other races included in the packet. Im new to the running world and it would be great to know of other races.	Aug 10, 2011 10:35 PM
55	Please do not let out side company run the show. Keep it local. Make the cap, Work on the staggered start.	Aug 10, 2011 10:14 PM
56	Start the race at 7 before it gets too hot	Aug 10, 2011 10:02 PM
57	This was my first time at Woodstock. Everything was great. I can't think of one negative thing to say. The tacos were my favorite post race food item. I loved being able to hear music along the race and have cheers! Also being able to hear the announcer let me know that I was nearing the finish line! My family and I had a wonderful morning. Can't wait til next year!	Aug 10, 2011 10:00 PM
58	I LOVED seeing the AHS football team, cheerleaders, and band out to cheer on the runners. They all had awesome attitudes and were so wonderful to cheer us on so enthusiastically. I hope they will continue to be a part of the race day atmosphere.	Aug 10, 2011 9:53 PM
59	Huge event, planned and executed exceptionally well. Hats off to Dennis and Ed and Brooke and Lori and all the rest who labored over this.	Aug 10, 2011 9:45 PM
60	I've just recently returned to running after a lay-off in excess of 20 years. I don't think I could have re-entered the running scene on a better note. Since the race I've told many people- runners and non-runners- what a fun event Woodstock was to run. I was so impressed that I'm considering joining the Anniston Runner's club even though I live in Pell City. It was a wonderful, exciting, fun-filled experience and I'm already looking forward to next year.	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
61	In My Opinion You Nailed It This Year, It Was Great....Thanks To All...See You All Next Year If Not Before...	Aug 10, 2011 9:34 PM
62	Thank you for upcoming race information in packets. Love the shirts! Thank you for all that you do! This year was great!	Aug 10, 2011 9:33 PM
63	very well run-my 15(2nd time runner) and my 10yr old ran - I would not have let the youngest run if i was not confident about her safety	Aug 10, 2011 9:14 PM
64	2011 race is improved from 2010.	Aug 10, 2011 9:01 PM
65	Please make kidstock for 12 years old and under - only. One little 4 year old girl was knocked down by a big tall boy who was late to the start line. The boy may have been less than 12, but he sure didn't look like it. A 14 year old is almost in 9th grade. It just seems like that is too old.	Aug 10, 2011 8:59 PM
66	How about a car key drop off so you don't have to worry about running with them? The keys could be tagged with the person's bib number.	Aug 10, 2011 8:48 PM
67	Awesome fun! Cant wait to beat my time next year!!!	Aug 10, 2011 8:40 PM
68	I would like to see a change of the course. No one I know enjoys running thru the hood. That is why you have to have group training runs. For safety. Show a better side of Anniston. It exists. You all do a super job with the event but the social economically depressed neighborhoods that this race runs thru makes this race unattractive to me. If it wasn't for all the great people involved who work so hard to make this successful, It would not be on my calendar. Its almost like peer	Aug 10, 2011 8:37 PM

69	One of the best 5K's I have ever run! Love that you say prayer before race. Come from Nashville and they do not do that at the larger races.	Aug 10, 2011 8:36 PM
70	This was the ultimate Woodstock ever because everything came together since it was inside and outside at AHS. It was very professionally organized and all the volunteers were very friendly and helpful.	Aug 10, 2011 8:27 PM
71	Please move the stuff back outside!	Aug 10, 2011 8:06 PM
